1. Description of the clinical trial financing

This study site will be reimbursed for all trial activities according to the financial information within the contract between the sponsor and clinical trial site, which is negotiated for each trial. All trial-related activities at site level will be fully reimbursed by the sponsor at agreed fair market value. The sponsor will also fund/provide study drug and protocol required equipment and supplies, where applicable. Funds will be transferred to the sites upon receipt of an invoice detailing the relevant activities undertaken.

2. Description of any other agreement between sponsor and site

A clinical trial contract agreement and confidentiality agreement between the sponsor and clinical trial site will be negotiated and executed between the sponsor and each clinical trial site. The clinical trial agreement will set out the roles and responsibilities of each party in conducting the clinical trial.
